

Biden Snaps When Reporters Asks About Migrant Payouts

President Biden's near-constant media gaffes have become well known. Recently, the President was visibly upset when a reporter asked about recent claims the Biden administration was considering up to $450,000 payouts to migrants that were previously separated at the border. Biden has recently gone back and forth on the reports claiming they're untrue but then seeing to switch back arguing the illegal migrants "deserve compensation."

The Daily Wire reports:

"I'd like to ask you, real quick, sir: Where do you stand?" the reporter asked. "You said last week that this report about migrant families at the border getting payments was 'garbage.'"

"No, I didn't say that," Biden claimed.

"Let's get it straight. You said everybody coming across the border gets $500- — $450,000," Biden falsely claimed.

"Now, here's the thing: If in fact, because of the outrageous behavior of the last administration, you were coming across the border, whether it was legal or illegal, and you lost your child — you lost your child — it's gone — you deserve some kind of compensation, no matter what the circumstance," Biden yelled. "What that will be, I have no idea. I have no idea. Yes."
