

Joe Biden's Long Goodbye

What is the Joe Biden Democrat legacy? Lies and using the government hammer to make their fortune as they sold their country to foreign powers like China. That is the Biden legacy.

It was always lies with China Joe. He'll always be a liar. He was a liar 50 years ago when he used his brother as the bagman and he's a liar now as a senile old man, with his son Hunter as the family bagman.

They're old school Democrats, and so they've always been grifters as well. The Biden Crime Family have been grifters for a half century, using Democrat politics and the government hammer to build their fortunes, taking treasure from foreign oligarchs in China, Russia, Ukraine and elsewhere while wrapping themselves up in American patriotic virtue. And they've also taken from American tech oligarchs like Mark Zuckerberg and others who paid the Bidens big-time by helping them suppress legitimate news stories to protect Biden Inc. and the Biden hold on power.

And after all they've done, Joe and Jill are the ones who are the guardians of democracy? I don't think so.

Part of the Biden genius has been to corrupt their allies. So the Democrat Party from Barack Obama on down lied to us to keep Biden as a figurehead in power. They shouted down and threatened anyone who would dare tell the truth to the American people. He was their meat puppet, yes, a dangerous meat puppet with nuclear codes setting the world on fire. But he was their meat puppet.

Years ago, when I first called him a meat puppet, I was harassed by left wing media writers (is there any other kind?) They asked that I respect the office of the presidency. But Joe didn't respect it, did he? He spat on it.

In Joe Biden, America has never seen a politician so wedded to lies. The Biden lies oozed from him unbidden. And thanks to the Federalist online magazine, we have a comprehensive list of his lies.

“Let’s get something in mind about the border: When I became president, the numbers came way down,” Biden told reporters.

No, Joe, the numbers went way up. You had invited the world to surge the border and the world did as you asked. Your administration kept telling us that the border was secure. It wasn’t. That cost you the election.

The White House lied for him. Obama’s Deep State lied for him pushing the world to the very edge of nuclear war. He is the Idiot Wind.

And Monday, as President Donald Trump takes the oath of office, our long national nightmare with China Joe Biden will finally be over. But is it the time, as Democrats demand, of letting bygones be bygones? No. Not yet. Did the Democrats ease their boots from our throats? Not because of their kindness, but of necessity. Their shock troops in the left wing corporate media are weak and in disarray.

So if you’re asking me to let the old man fade into senility, I’m sorry. I just can’t. The Democrats carried the lie, perpetuated the lie and now we’re supposed to show respect to the feeble politician just because he’s a senile old man?

No. I can’t do that after all the Democrats have done. Throw a shroud on him. He’s done. But I won’t reward them. Yes, I know many of you are tired and want this coming week to be one of unity and celebration as Donald J. Trump is sworn into office, again. I want this to be a unifying moment for my countrymen who are exhausted. I get it.

But first I think there should be a reckoning.

There can be no forgiveness without admission of guilt. There can be no redemption without first confession. And the Democrats have much to seek forgiveness for.

There must be a reckoning for what they’ve done, from lying about the border to lying about justice, turning the Department of Justice into his political hit squad. And there is so much more for the Democrats to reckon with, including Democrats standing against the rule of law to thwart legitimate deportations of illegals that entered the country illegally and committed terrible crimes. And a reckoning for the more than 300,000 children lost to the sex traffickers on the border.

And beginning this week, look for the corrupt corporate legacy media to go into full “resistance mode.”

But the liberal media won't ever be able to recover. The stench of their relationship propping up Joe still emanates from their pores, like a drunken eaters of raw garlic passed out in a steam bath.

As the corporate media claps its paws like trained squirrels, demanding “unity” and pouting when they don't get it like the cynical TV leftist shrews of “The View,” please consider the cynicism of the American Intelligence officers who lied for Joe Biden, the Shameless 51.

To his lies that the Southern border was secure, to all those lies he heaped on the American plate in his farewell address, the shameless corporate legacy media that I was once a part of praised him and locked the gates of hell upon themselves. What we once called the corporate media is now dead. You heard the eulogies in their praise of Biden's cheap farewell speech.

“I think that was maybe one of the best speeches I've ever heard Joe Biden give,” said former Obama adviser and CNN commentator David Axelrod.

Really, David? One of the greatest speeches? Like the one in which he stood before the blood red wall in Philadelphia in 2022, and accused Republicans of being threats to the republic?

“Maga Republicans do not respect the Constitution,” said Biden. “They do not believe in the rule of law... and they're working right now as I speak, in state after state, to give power to decide elections in America, to partisans and cronies, empowering election deniers to undermine democracy itself.”

Democrats always reveal themselves and the Banana Republic they wanted when they project their fears.

Remember that it was Axelrod's cynical use of media that created Obama. And it was Obama who fantasized, after he left office, about having his very own meat puppet and telling that meat puppet what to say.

That meat puppet was Joe Biden.

So yes, I want a reckoning. For the liar in chief, and for all his trolls and enablers.

I love the United States of America, and there must be a reckoning.
