The U.S. military's health insurance plan is discriminatory and violates Equal Protection rights under the Fifth Amendment of the United States Constitution by failing to cover costly gender transition surgeries, an Obama-appointed federal judge ruled days ago. Two transgender women sued the Department of Defense (DOD), the U.S. Defense Health Agency, Secretary of Defense Lloyd J. Austin III and the agency's Tricare Health Plan over a provision that bans surgical coverage of procedures that improve physical appearance without a significant restoration of functions, including "sex gender changes." The biological males, who want to be female, claim in their lawsuit that denying coverage of medically necessary gender transition surgeries violates their Constitutional Equal Protection rights, a guarantee that requires the government "to treat alike all persons similarly situated."

I have a friend who teaches Biology. She shared this with me tonight.

She's been trying to grow mold since Nov 24th for a lab experience in class next week.

That's our wheat bread with that beautiful mold!! Check out those other 2 bread slices. She said the Pepperidge farm feels like it just came out the oven and neither of them show one speck of mold!! 🤯🤯 Take note that Pepperidge farm is a grain/wheat bread, "the one they advertise as healthier."

Yall, it's almost 2 months. The level of preservatives/chemicals in that stuff is scary!! Real food molds.
