Soros-funded alt-left spreading N. Korea propaganda

SEPTEMBER 5, 2017

Two of the largest organizations behind the so-called “resistance” against President Donald Trump’s administration have adopted new tactics in their all-out blitz against the White House.

They’re backing North Korea over the United States.

One of the groups, Refuse Fascism, was created only to oppose Trump and his administration. They’ve stated a new goal to take down Trump is to undermine the president’s “international legitimacy.”

The Horn News readers may recognize Refuse Fascism as the alt-left organization behind much of the violent attacks on Trump supporters in the past year. It is largely funded by liberal billionaire George Soros.

“The other group is Workers World Party, a Marxist organization that has played a leading role in anti-Trump demonstrations across the country,” according to The Daily Caller, which first reported this story.

“Both groups have consistently echoed North Korean talking points that demonize America while excusing Un’s genocidal regime, and both groups have instructed their followers to distrust American media reporting that reflects negatively on North Korean leaders’ oppression of their own people,” The Daily Caller continued.

Following the United Nations’ Security Council’s unanimous decision on Aug. 5 to extend sanctions against Kim Jong Un’s regime, the two organizations rushed to North Korea’s defense.

“Korea won’t be intimidated,” one editorial from Worker’s World magazine read, which contained nine paragraphs of direct quotes from the North Korean government.

Another published that week was titled, “Self-defense and the DPRK” and labeled the United States as the true “oppressors” of the Korean people.

On Aug. 8, Refuse Fascism published a manifesto accusing Trump’s administration of being a force of terror against Kim Jong Un, whose regime has overseen the torture and death of hundreds of thousands of North Korean in concentration camps.

Refuse Fascism claims the looming conflict is simply, “the largest military power in the world bullying a small, isolated country and terrorizing the people of that entire region.”

In July, the organization instructed it’s followers to “Act in the Interests of Humanity, Not Based on ‘America First’” and told it’s readers to “Stop thinking like an American.”

They labeled Trump’s attempt to stop a madman from getting nuclear weapons as “American imperialism.”

On the bright side, by aligning themselves with a homicidal madman, the alt-left has finally revealed their true colors.

There's simply no more denying it.

It's clear they don't want to "resist" Trump — they want to take down America.
