Hello CARMA,

I am officially the Republican nominee for the Congressional election for the 1st District this November. And it is all because of you.

Our army of volunteers helped us collect over 3,000 petition signatures, and their dedication to my campaign shows we are ready for the march towards November 6th.

Each of you represents the reason I am running.

I serve in Congress because starting with my time on the Montross Town Council, I've seen problems that need to be solved. I've seen people that need to be helped. And I've seen communities that need tools of empowerment rather than a sound-bite or a band-aid.

I am running again because it has been the honor of my life to take your values and ideas from America's First District to Washington, and I have a principled record of results.

Through a focus on smaller government, less red tape for small business, a strong military, skills-focused education, and safe and empowered communities, we can continue to find solutions to the challenges facing our district and nation. I hope you will allow me that privilege again on November 6th.

The next step starts today, and I cannot do it without my friends stepping up. Republicans had a disappointing election season in Virginia in 2017, and the Democrats are more than ready to extend that trend in 2018.

Will you commit to volunteering for one task on my To Do List to win this race?

Better yet, will you commit to sharing this email with 5 people?

Thank you for all that you do to make the First District a home I am proud to serve.

Onward to victory,

Rob
