Judge Aileen Cannon has dismissed the classified documents case against Donald Trump saying special counsel Jack Smith's appointment was unconstitutional.

Key Details:

Case Background: The case involved allegations that Trump mishandled classified documents after leaving office.

Judge's Rationale: Judge Cannon determined that the appointment of Jack Smith as Special Counsel did not adhere to constitutional requirements, rendering the investigation and subsequent charges invalid.

“The Superseding Indictment is DISMISSED because Special Counsel Smith's appointment violates the Appointments Clause of the United States Constitution,” Cannon wrote.
